TRUMP'S VOW TO WAGE A HOLY CRUSADE AGAINST SEPHARDIC JEWS

Tom Tancredo, a direct descendant of Tancred the Great Crusader, has successfully advanced his legacy of ethnic hatred with racial purity arguments couched in religious sentiment. What is highly significant about his technique is that he succeeded in transferring it to Candidate Trump. This is the reason why President Trump has couched his policies about the border with Mexico as being “sacred” and that he made a “sacred vow” to “build a wall with Mexico.” Various sources indicate that Tancredo’s racist agenda was transplanted within the context of a prayer meeting that took place with religious leaders, and that Presbyterian Trump made a religious vow to defend America from the foreign invasion. It’s difficult to believe that Tancredo, a single-issue politician hell-bent on a vendetta against Mexicans actually managed to produce a single-issue, hell-bent President to lead America with this hateful legacy, yet that is exactly what has happened. Tancredo, just like Tancred, has a military dimension to his life, which is why he founded Tom’s Army, the mobilization of like-minded militias, whose bloody legacy is no different than Tancred’s genocide against Jews and Muslims. The topic of immigration is not a rational discussion with the Trump Administration, it is actually a holy crusade against Sephardic Jews (Mexicans / Hispanics / Latinos / Mesoamericans) and Muslims.
