

AIDING & ABETTING OF DOMESTIC TERRORISM EXHIBIT 7 - FRAME 7 (SMPTE TIME CODE 00;00;20;19)

PROJECTING*
EXAMPLE 2: "MURDERERS"

One of the techniques that has been perfected by Tom Tancredo and the movement he has organized over the past 2 decades has been his strategy of projecting i.e blaming others of doing precisely the things that his movement is guilty of doing. For example, Donald Trump kicked off his Presidential campaign announcing that Mexicans are "murderers." The parties or persons that are actually involved in murder, however, are the armed vigilantes that are patrolling the border. In order to be accurately classified, their activities have to be described in legal terms as "acts of domestic terrorism." The US-Mexico border region is littered with thousands of bodies of migrants who died of unnatural causes, the product of the atrocities committed by vigilantes.

According to the US Legal website, domestic terrorism means "activities that--

(A) involve acts dangerous to human life that are a violation of the criminal laws of the United States or of any State;

(B) appear to be intended--

(i) to intimidate or coerce a civilian population;

(ii) to influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion; or

(iii) to affect the conduct of a government by mass destruction, assassination, or kidnapping; and

(C) occur primarily within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States."(18 USCS § 2331) never been seen before," Trump claimed of the caravan as he referenced his infamous 2015 remarks when he launched his presidential campaign that Mexico was deliberately sending murderers and rapists into the US. "Everybody said, oh, he was so tough. I used the word rape," said Trump, as he reflected on his comments then.
