“HISPANIC MALES IN WHITE T-SHIRTS ARE TERRORISTS”

The Trump Campaign team chose to cast a cholo or Mexican male in a white T-shirt as a terrorist. This is the classic, Tancredo-style of hyping and demonizing Hispanics, Latinos or Mesoamericans and portraying them as an exaggerated threat. In reality, the Latino gang problem is not too different from gangs from other ethnic minorities. White supremacists also have an ongoing race-based beef with cholos and our researchers found evidence of cholos being portrayed as silhouettes for target practice in areas patrolled by vigilantes as part of their psychological conditioning to take lethal action against immigrants on the US-Mexico border region.
